COVID Precautions: At this time, Oklahoma City does not require specific COVID precautions. The Windsong Dojo asks participants to sign a release about COVID. I ask students for this class to think about their level of comfort for COVID precautions. You will be paired with someone who has an equivalent level of concern about COVID precautions. For example, if two people are more comfortable with masks and gloves, they will be paired together. The room is large, so there is plenty of room for social distancing. Everyone will bring their own food and water, etc., so there is no food sharing. Just think about your own comfort level. When you sign up for the class, I will send an email to ask about what precautions would help you be comfortable in class. Obviously, if you don't feel well, stay home.
